What happens on a painting & prayer retreat?

Each day begins with a short service of worship. During the day there will be input and help for your artwork, but also plenty of free time for painting and for quiet. There will be opportunities throughout the retreat for spiritual accompaniment and pastoral needs. Evenings include a time of fellowship and reflection, ending with night prayer. Please bring your own art materials, but there is also a limited supply available if you need any extras.

Retreat at Epiphany House

Smaller than some retreat centres with just 12 guest bedrooms, Epiphany House is an historic, comfortable and peaceful house set in lovely gardens. Each bedroom has a hand basin and is close to bathroom facilities (bathrobes are provided). Our catering team enjoy a well-deserved reputation for good food and all meals will be freshly prepared in-house.
